

Who We Are

Out of Our Minds Banners is a Christian ministry committed to encouraging Christians to enter more fully into worship and spiritual warfare. We do this by providing training and supplying training resources and weaponry, including banners and banner poles.

Why Out of Our Minds?

My wife Marta and I have a call on our lives to be reconcilers; 2 Corinthians 5:11 through 6:2 addresses our call to reconciliation. This call was significantly specific to Marta and I as we moved into full-time ministry. God desires to reconcile us to Himself through Christ (v. 18), and He has given us the ministry of reconciliation. We have been given a message and have been made Christ's ambassadors. Paul implores us on Christ's behalf to be reconciled to God and urges us not to receive His grace in vain. He tells us that NOW is the time of God's favour, NOW is the day of salvation.

“If we are out of our minds,
it is for the sake of God; if
we are in our right mind, it is for you. For Christ's love compels us ...”

He precedes this urgent call by recognising that to some this will look like he might be commending himself or seem out of his mind (v. 13); but he stresses, “If we are out of our minds, it is for the sake of God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. For Christ's love compels us ...”

So Marta and I took on the name Out of Our Minds, instead of Ambassadors or Reconcilers, which already were in plentiful use. The call is the same. To some, our ministry can seem like we are out of our minds. In reality, our aim is to build bridges between people and between people and God, through worship.

Electronic Version

These large silk banners are ideal for a man or woman after God's sword and period for public worship and for education. They can be seen from greater distances and make a very strong statement in parades, processions and performance. Particularly when used in large spaces and have a huge impact both visually and spiritually! The sense of the power and authority that is yours as God's representative on earth is enhanced when you wield a large banner. Most people who try them won't go back to a smaller one!

Large banners can be hung on a wall in your home, office, or church to make a silent but quite bold prophetic proclamation. In times of personal ministry, wrapping a large banner around the person gives a greater sense of full covering.

Medium Banner

To use in limited spaces.

Dimensions: 150 cm. x 89 cm. (59 in. x 34 in.)

Medium-sized silk banners are ideal if there are low ceilings or confined spaces. They are useful for dance groups and have an impact outdoors and when used in ministry to individuals. Teenagers and older children find them very easy to handle. If you are a little on the shy side, this would be a good size for your personal banner and can be used in your home or taken anywhere with you. Medium banners are a good size to hang on a wall in most homes.

Small Banner

Designed for children and very confined spaces.

Dimensions: 100 cm. x 57 cm. (40 in. x 23 in.)

The smaller hand-painted silk banners can be tucked away easily. They are good especially in limited spaces and for children of all ages. They add a touch of colour without needing very much room. Young children love to use these small banners in groups with other children and alongside adults using the larger banners.
